Property Sales: City of Grayling is not responsible for identifying other accounts associated with the real estate sale in question. It is a requirement of the Seller to disclose all account/amount associated with the sale of property. Failure to receive a bill does not relieve the obligation of its payment. If outstanding amounts are not paid at closing, they will transfer to the new owner at the time the sale is closed. This should be noted by all attorneys, realtors or others representing a seller or buyer.
